

Your Cozy Sitting Room

These chilly evenings brings much enjoyment. Is there any article of lacking? Take a look into your needs and get what you want while OUR GREAT SALE OF FURNITURE is going on. You can save money if you will take heed to what we say.

FURNITURE

Mrs. E. C. Fitzgerald.

L. L. Morris, of Ozona, was here Friday.

C. W. Stewart was in from Eola Friday.

T. S. Williamson came in from the ranch Friday.

Mrs. C. W. B. Collins and son were in from the ranch Saturday and Sunday.

J. H. Burnett, of Goldthwaite, transacted business in San Angelo Saturday.

-Fresh fruits, candies and nuts at Jones & Davis's. 46-47

Neil Monahan left Monday for St. Louis. He may return to San Angelo later on.

Dr. Henry Taylor, of Eldorado, expects to remove to San Angelo and will probably be a partner with Dr. M. M. Woodward.

Remember that dainty "Majestic" lunch next week at C. & G. Hagelstein Co's. Everybody invited. Don't get left. 45-46

Z. Davis, of Sterling City, came in on Sunday's train and went out Monday.

P. M. Christy leaves today for a business trip through the country in the interest of C. H. Cox & Co.

Miss Herring, who has been in L. Schwartz & Co's, notion department resigned her position last week.

E. T. Rigney, who is a brother to Mrs. W. W. Foreman, is at Hagelstein's in the capacity of bookkeeper. Mr. C. O. Fokes resigned his position last week.

E. B. Baggett, of Ozona, came in Sunday afternoon from a trip to Belton and Temple. Mr. Baggett spent Sunday night in town and went out to Ozona Monday morning.

-Millinery to be stylish must come from fashion centers. Mrs. Simmons has shipments arriving every week and in this way keeps an up-to-date stock. 45-46

Miss Ella Marti, who has been at the Landon hotel for some weeks past, went out to Berry Ketchum's Pecos county ranch Monday to assume a position as governess.

No ware made compares with the "Majestic." The full set is worth $7.50, but we're going to give a set free with every Majestic Range sold at our exhibit next week. Don't get left. C. & G. Hagelstein Co.

The horse to March Bros. delivery wagon became frightened Saturday morning and was going down Chadbourne touching only at places of considerable altitude and receiving without invitation a complete right of way. Mr. Harry Thompson, of Ballinger, on horse back in attempting to catch the lines just when the horse turned at the Ragsdale corner, got a pretty hard fall by having his horse fall with him. He received no serious injuries however and is fully O. K. The runaway horse continued at a pretty fair gait and broke from the wagon being caught in the suburbs.

-Fireproof safes. F. Probandt.

New Fixtures at Schwartz's.

L. Schwartz & Co. received a new ladies suit and clock case Monday that is certainly a novelty. It is very large and roomy having room for a large number of garments. It is made of fine quartered oak highly polished and has triplicate mirrors attached. It is very ornamental and is one of the prettiest pieces of store furniture west of Ft. Worth.

J. W. Payne, of Ozona, was in town Wednesday.

Lee Snyder was in from the ranch Thursday.

E. L. Glover came back from Brownwood Thursday.

Berry Ketchum returned to his Pecos ranch last week.

J. E. Gardner, of Stiles, was registered at the Landon Thursday.

T. M. Massey came up from Ballinger Thursday, for a short stay.

The fixtures for the Kirby saloon in the Simon Poll building, were unloaded Thursday.

D. B. McCallum, the Robert Lee merchant, made a business trip to this city Wednesday.

Ernest Pahl and family and Mrs. James Dumars came up with the crowd from Brownwood Thursday.

You'll miss a rare treat if you do not attend the grand Majestic cooking exhibit at C. & G. Hagelstein Co's. Don't get left.

Cane For Sale.

Fine second crop cane for sale. Apply to John Bennett or leave orders at Arkansas Smith's store.

Lost—Gold Watch.

Double case gold watch, with rope chain attached, my initials engraved on outside of case, my name on inside. Probably lost at or near stock pens. I will pay $10.00 reward for its return to Landon Hotel.

H. A. THOMPSON, JR.

IF YOU WANT AN ## ACCIDENT OR HEALTH POLICY

I can write you the strongest company in the world, writing Life, Accident and Liability Insurance. I can write you a more liberal and attractive policy than you can get in any other company writing Accident Insurance, but should you like any particular form of policy that has been offered you by any other company, I will duplicate it and you will have $33,000,000 of assets to protect you. If you already have sufficient insurance on your life and simply wish to secure a maximum weekly benefit for the least money, I can write you a weekly benefit policy, giving two-fifths greater weekly benefits at the same amount of premium than you pay under ordinary policies. It will pay you to see me before taking out any accident or health insurance.

PENROSE N. IONS,

Office, Spence Building; Phone 87.

E. J. Drake left for Waco Monday.

Tom Privett went to Cleburne Monday.

E. W. Loftin and wife, of Christoval, were in town Saturday.

Herman Gillis left Monday for St. Louis with a car of calves.

J. K. Barfield went to Houston Monday with two cars of cattle.

Ralph Harris came in from a business trip to Ft. Worth Sunday.

Mrs. C. N. Nichols was in town last week returning to her home in Sonora Saturday.

Miss Clara Guion, of Ballinger, was in the city last week the guest of Mrs. E. L. McAlpine.

-Seventy-five children will assist in the entertainment at the opera house Friday night. There'll be fun enough for all. Help the Cemetery Association in a worthy cause by attending.

Cotton and Pecans.

The cotton market yesterday was off about 25 points.

Local buyers were paying from 10¢ to 10½¢ for the fleecy staple. There have been 2000 bales marketed here this season. The 3000th bale will get a $20.00 premium which number will doubtless come in this week or the early part of next week.

Pecans were moving slow, not so many coming in since last Wednesday as during the week before. The price ranged from 3½¢ to 4¢ varying according to quality and size of the nuts.

A good many men who bought pecans franchises will lose money, others will gain. The low price of pecans this season will afford a reason for losses.

A set of copper, steel and enameled cooking utensils, well worth $7.50, absolutely free with every Majestic Range sold next week at C. & G. Hagelstein Co's. Don't get left.

A Ladies' Restaurant

New place, nicely furnished, and conducted in a manner to merit the best class of patronage. Providing the very best table fare to be had in the city. Now open and ready for business. Will appreciate your patronage and cater carefully to your every want.

Opp. Central Drug Store..... Slack's Restaurant

The messengers to the Baptist Association at Dallas, returned last week.

H. C. Dunn was in the city Thursday on business and called at the Press office.

A. S. Green went to Brownwood last week to see his father who was reported quite sick.

Walter Robertson had his hand bruised up in making the run to the fire Friday morning.

Rev. S. T. Shore is enjoying a vacation from his pastoral duties and is spending the time on a fish and hunt.

-Piana Stools, Scarfs and Covers at Allen's Music Store.

The Woodmen of the World are negotiating for ground on which to erect a two story rock or brick building.

J. B. Allen, wife and Miss Annie Hewitt went down to Brownwood on Wednesday's excursion returning Thursday.

J. R. Day and family are expected to arrive this week from Copperas Caves, and will occupy the Willis Johnson house in East San Angelo.

-Guitars, Violins etc. at Allen's.

J. H. Jackson, of Rudd, was here Thursday.

T. S. Wood, of Comanche, was in town Saturday.

Ed Dozier, of Paint Rock, was in San Angelo Saturday.

Fred Radway and Jesse Sheffield came down from Sterling City Thursday.

R. D. Crozier, of Paint Rock, was shaking hands with San Angelo friends Thursday.

Chas. Howard and M. P. Hamilton, prominent Water Valleyians, were in San Angelo Thursday.

City Marshal Coleman went down on the Brownwood special Wednesday and returned at 12:45.

J. F. Wagner, was in from Eldorado Friday and called to renew his subscription to the Press, taking advantage of the special New York World offer.

-Put out your Pansy beds now for winter blooming, fine plants ready now, almost in bud. 35¢ a dozen at J. J. Nussbaumer's. Phone 233.

-Moody the blacksmith repairs anything. 40 tf

Queen Quality
Worth $1.00 a Day!

There is only one Shoe to be considered when it comes to a question of FIT & That Shoe is the

"Queen Quality"

Its perfect Fit means an increased factory cost of many hundreds of dollars a week, but it costs the wearer nothing extra.

"Queen Quality" Shoes are totally different in construction from other shoes. "Queen Quality" grasps the foot at the instep and holds it right there. The toes are never crowded; the heel is never pinched.

Walking is a joy.

Boots $3.00; Oxfords $2.50.

Winkler & Hudson Co.,

The Great Low Price Store of San Angelo

For Exchange.

Good four room house, with one-half acre of ground, in best residence portion of Amarillo. worth $1500; will exchange for San Angelo property. Call on 46 It W. D. CURRIER.

Ike Funk was in from the ranch Thursday.

M. Cox was in from the ranch Saturday.

J. W. Garrett and wife, of El Dorado, were in San Angelo Thursday.

S. C. Martin and wife, of Rudd, were visitors to San Angelo Thursday.

Geo. E. Baugh, the well known Vigo ranchman, was in the city Saturday.

See the modern cooking wonder—the Majestic Range—at C. & G. Hagelstein Co's. Don't get left.

C. M. Reynolds returned from quite a little visit to friends and the Fair in San Antonio Monday. Mr. Reynolds went down to be there only a few days. On account of the quarantine he failed to get back until Monday.

C. B. Metcalf expressed to parties in North Texas and Louisiana points seven head of very fine Tamworth hogs Monday. Mr. Metcalf has been very successful raising hogs. One of this number weighed approximately 250 pounds and was not fat either. He says he has some more as large and one larger than this one by 30 per cent.

Harold Westcott returned to San Angelo Monday.

George Abbott returned from a business trip to Gainesville Sunday.

-Tom Thumb Wedding and Children's Minstrel Friday night. Admission 25¢ and 35¢.

Don Matthews is again one of Findlaters' salesmen, assuming his duties there Monday morning.

Dr. A. C. Scott and Mr. A. F. Bentley of Temple, who have been spending several weeks near Ozona in camp life, passed through this city Monday on their way home. They had quite an enjoyable hunting, fishing and general rusticiating time while out in West Texas and go back home very much browner and feeling better.

-Music Books at Allen's
The Press acknowledges receipt of the following:

We extend you a cordial invitation to partake with us a cup of coffee and hot biscuits and to witness the workings of the Great Majestic Steel and Malleable Iron Range at our store. We will show you how to make biscuits brown top and bottom in three minutes; how to cook with one-half the fuel you are now using and show you an article that, if properly used, will last a lifetime. Hot coffee and biscuits served every day from November 23 to 28. C. & G. HAGELSTEIN CO. San Angelo, Texas.

Position Wanted as Governess.

Young lady qualified to teach music, Spanish and English branches desires position as governess in good ranch home. Address V. M. care The Press.

THE NEW PLACE

The Bismarck Saloon

Finest Bar Fixtures in West Texas. Best of Choice Wines and Liquors always on hand. In new Simon Poll Building. Come in and let's get acquainted.

E. S. KIRBY, Proprietor.

Child Choked to Death.

Johnnie, the 10 months old child of E. T. Puckett who lives in Irion county near Sherwood, became choked on a piece of pecan kernel Sunday afternoon. After vainly trying to dislodge the offending particle the alarmed parents started with the little one for San Angelo to obtain the aid of a physician. The little one didn't survive the trip, however, dying before they reached this place. The incident is a very sad one. The loving mother is almost prostrate with grief.

Undertaker Gantt sent a casket out Sunday night and the remains were buried Monday at Sherwood. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the whole community in their sad loss.

Would you buy your new hat at a store where style is paramount. If so go see the stock of Messdames Holden & Hinde's. It.

C. A. Dailey went to Ballinger Monday returning yesterday.

Messrs. Conway and Pimm of the Santa Fe, were in town this week.

-$1.00 will get one dozen cabinet photos at Henry's gallery. 1

Santa Fe Excursion Rates.

Navasota, Texas, Grand Lodge Colored Masons of Texas. On sale Nov. 27 and 28th. Rate $13.35.

Galveston, Tex. Builders Exchange Convention. On sale November 29 and 30, rate $14.40.

Cleburne, Tex. Texas Christian Lectureship. On sale Dec. 6 and 7th, rate $9.15.

Ft. Worth, Texas. Annual Convention Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. On sale Nov. 22nd and 23rd; rate $7.55.

F. E. SKINNER, Agent.

Mr. Snyder of the Snyder Brokerage Co. went to Ballinger Monday.

-Blacksmithing, woodwork, and repairing done well at Moody's shop. 40 tf

Ernest Garnet went to Brownwood Monday and returned with Mrs. Garnet yesterday.

-Walking hats, locally famed for their newness at Messdames Holden & Hinde's. 1t

Mrs. Willike and daughter, Miss Minnie, of Ballinger, are visiting friends in the city.

-Musical Strings at Allen's.

My Spanish Class

Began Tuesday Night, November 10th.

The New Books Are Here.

If you want to take lessons in Spanish,—lessons that are thorough in every particular, begin now.

Tuition: $3.00 for Regular Class Lessons,
$5.00 for Individual Lessons.

Better Begin at the Beginning.

Mrs. W. S. Veck.

Don't Fail To Read!

We have the most Complete Line of HOLIDAY GOODS in the city, which will be on display

Monday, November 23, 1903

We give away this Christmas a $50 Phonograph, first prize; and a $5.00 Dressed Doll, second prize. Come in; you are always welcome. BEST GOODS—LOWEST PRICES.

The Racket Store